In Tipton he has some folthe APPEAL says: "Mr. Taylor is a young man, thirty-five years of age, a good lawyer, and as a man, honest and upright. As a politician, Mr. Taylor has occupied most every political position known to politicians in Tennessee within the last ten years. Six years ago he was a Greenbacker, denouncing the financial policy of the Republican party. In 1880 he was a low-tax Democrat Independent Republican, and defeated Mr. J. H. Lauderdale for the State Senate, receiving a large Democratic vote. But since openly he will not capture any Democratic votes in Tipton to amount to any-thing. But we are glad that Mr. Taylor received the nomination. He is the first man that has succeeded in bursting the dent from the opening of the convention that there would be a hard fight between the Stalwarts and Half-Breeds, but on the long desired victory.

"To sum up the matter, I will say that no cleverer man socially could have been nom-inated, and the best thing of all, Mr. Tay-

THOUSANDS OF LETTERS in our possession repeat this story; I have been a te rible sufferer for years with Blood and Skin Humors; have been obliged to shun public places by reason of my disfiguring humors; have had the best physicians; have spent hundreds of dollars and go no real relief until I used the Curiours Resolvers, the new Blood Pariner, inteenally, and Curiours and Curiours Soar, the Great Skin Chres and Skin Beauthers, externally, which have cured me and left my skin and klood a pure as a child's. ALMOST INCREDIBLE.

James E. Richardson, Custom House, New Orleans, on eath, says: In 1850 Scrofulous Ulcers broke out on my body until I was a mass of corruption. Everything known to the medical faculty was tried in vain. I became a more wronk. At times could not in my hands to my head on the could not in the constant pain, and looked upon life as a curse. No relief or curo in ten years. In 1880 I heard of the Curacha Kan-polys, used them, and was perjectly cursed. bworn to before U. S. Com. J. D. Cnaws. MORE SO.

Of any school, what is the best thing the world for quieting and allaying all irri-tation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike, refreshing sleep always? And they will tell you, unhesitatingly, Lome form of Hops!" CHAPTER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent phy-decians:

"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and uricary organs—such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inty to retain urine, and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women?"

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically, 'Buchu."

Ask the same physicians:

"What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constination, indigestion, billionsness, malaria.

stipation, indigestion, biliousness, maiaria fever, ague, etc.?' and they will tell you Hence, when these remedies are combined with there equally valuable.

And compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderfal and mysterious curative power is developed which is so varied in its operations that no discusse or ill-bealth can possibly exist or resist its power, and yell it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.
